

What did Ofsted say about our Sixth Form? (Sept 2013)

“The sixth form is good and students make good progress on their post-16 courses.”

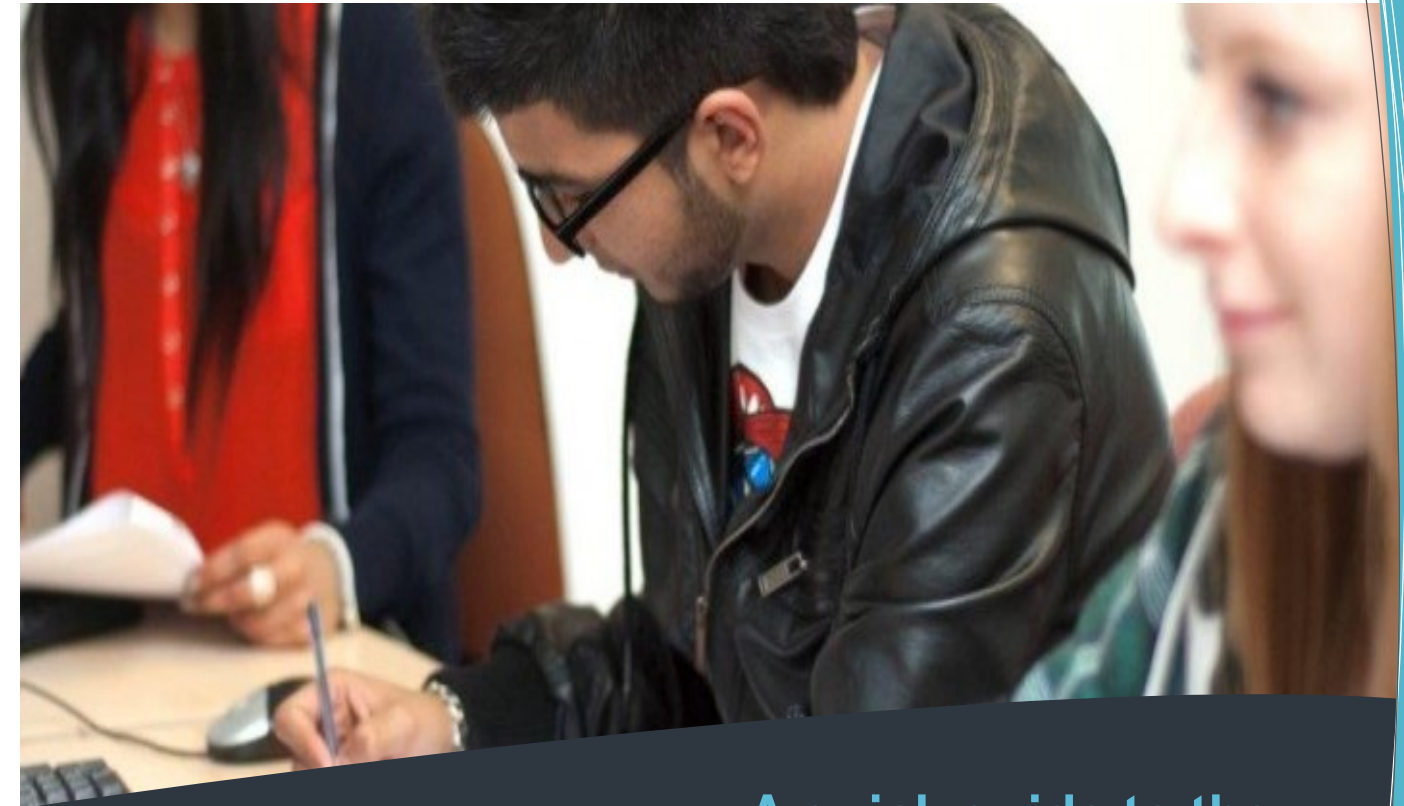

“Achievement in the sixth form is good and results are improving strongly. By the end of the sixth form, results are at least in line with, and often above, the national average for most subjects.”

“Sixth form students receive outstanding information, support and guidance.”

“After achieving 16 GCSEs of which 13 were at A-A, I decided Hillcrest Sixth Form would be best for my education. Thanks to the Sixth Form, I was enrolled on a ‘Pathways to Law’ programme with Warwick University which gave me really good work experience at a Law firm in London. It has helped me towards my ambition of becoming a Lawyer”*

Candace Miles—Year 13

Candace studies A Levels in English, Geography and RE. She also studies BTEC Level 3 Dance. She has applied to study Law at Oxford University.
