

Getting It Right Overview 2016-17

Cumulative Consequences C1- C4

Barriers to learning in the classroom	C1	C2	C3	C4
Negative Attitude to learning 1 in lesson
Negative Attitude to learning 2 in lesson	→
Negative Attitude to learning 3 in lesson	→	→	30 minute detention
Negative Attitude to learning 4 in lesson	→	→	→	Room 35 / SLT detention

Examples of negative attitude to learning that warrants a consequence:

- Talking while teacher and/or other students are speaking
- Talking while class have been asked to work silently / quietly
- Not listening or paying attention while the teacher and/or other students are talking
- Laughing out loud excessively or smirking when being spoke to by a teacher
- Shouting across the room to another student
- Deliberately distracting other students
- Chewing or eating in lesson / drinking in an IT room
- Throwing an object around the room
- Failing to bring the correct equipment / exercise book / materials
- Inappropriate uniform, ie – no tie, tie not worn appropriately, incorrect footwear, wearing outdoor coat
- Inappropriate use of technology, ie – looking at websites not appropriate to lesson content
- Failure to complete homework at all or to the expected standard (30 minute detention for C1)

Issuing a direct C3 consequence (30 minute detention)

Barriers to learning in the classroom	C1	C2	C3
Downloading inappropriate material from internet in an IT based lesson	→	→	→
Not following instructions issued by teacher, ie – refusal to move seat, to work with another student, etc	→	→	→
Speaking inappropriately to or questioning instructions issued by teacher	→	→	→
Preventing the teacher from delivering the lesson, ie – persistent shouting out, persistent talking, distracting other students	→	→	→
Arriving late to lesson three times or failure to bring the correct kit / equipment three times	→	→	→

Issuing a direct C4 (Sent to Room 35 and 60 minute SLT detention)

Barriers to learning in the classroom	C1	C2	C3	C4
Mobile is visible in lesson/around school (C4 but not room 35)	→	→	→	→
Refusal to hand over mobile phone or other inappropriate items to teacher, ie – jewellery (issue C4 and send to room 35)	→	→	→	→
Using inappropriate language or being verbally abusive towards a member of staff or another student, ie – swearing, verbal threats of physical violence, using derogatory language (racist or homophobic comments) or inappropriate comments about another person.	→	→	→	→
Physically aggressive towards a member of staff / another student, ie – student involved in fight with another student	→	→	→	→
Damaging school property or the personal property of staff / another student, ie- graffiti on tables, ripping pages out of textbooks	→	→	→	→
Displaying behaviour that is deemed to be dangerous to their own personal safety and other members of the class.	→	→	→	→
Sending inappropriate comments to another student via the internet	→	→	→	→
Truancing from lesson or form period	→	→	→	→